A message from your host:

First and foremost, I thank you for allowing me to convey the following:

Dear Friends,

My third annual "Celebrity" Golf Classic will take place on Friday Evening June 5th and Saturday June 6th, 2009 at the New England Country Club in Bellingham, Ma. Once again this two day event will focus on a certain theme: Just a little more than 30 years removed, the 1978 Patriots set an NFL Record for rushing yards in a season with 3,165 yards. Fullback Sam "Bam" Cunningham the older brother of former quarterback Randall Cunningham, led the way with 768 yards and quarterback Steve Grogan "chipped" in with 539. The record still stands today. It was also the year, unfortunately tragedy struck: While playing the Oakland Raiders in a pre – season game, wide receiver Darryl Stingley was running a crossing route when Raiders Jack Tatum administered a vicious hit. Stingley would never play football or for that matter ever walk again as he was left paralyzed.

Darryl Stingley at the age of 55 passed away on April 5th, 2007 but not before he and family decided to "give" back with their Youth Foundation in Chicago, Illinois. A portion of the two day event will benefit his foundation.

Thank You,

Ace Cacchiotti
